

the declassifying agency shall determine whether the information is subject to a treaty or international agreement that would prevent its declassification at that time. The declassifying agency shall also determine if another exemption under section 1.6(d) of the Order (other than section 1.6(b)(5)), such as the exemption that pertains to United States foreign relations, may apply to the information. If the declassifying agency believes such an exemption may apply, it should consult with any other concerned agencies in making its declassification determination. The declassifying agency or the Department of State, as appropriate, should consult with the foreign government prior to declassification.

(c) Cryptologic and intelligence information. Mandatory declassification review requests for cryptologic information and information concerning intelligence activities (including special activities) or intelligence sources or methods shall be processed solely in accordance with special procedures issued by the Secretary of Defense and the Director of Central Intelligence, respectively.

(d) Fees. In responding to mandatory declassification review requests for classified records, agency heads may charge fees in accordance with section 9701 of title 31, United States Code. The schedules of fees published in the FEDERAL REGISTER by agencies in implementation of Executive Order 12356 shall remain in effect until revised.

(e) Assistance to the Department of State. Heads of agencies should assist the Department of State in its preparation of the Foreign Relations of the United States (FRUS) series by facilitating access to appropriate classified materials in their custody and by expediting declassification review of documents proposed for inclusion in the FRUS.

(f) Requests filed under mandatory declassification review and the Freedom of Information Act. When a requester submits a request both under mandatory review and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), the agency shall require the requester to elect one process or the other. If the requester fails to elect one or the other, the request will be treated as a FOIA request unless the requested materials are subject only to mandatory review.

(g) FOIA and Privacy Act requests. Agency heads shall process requests for declassification that are submitted under the provisions of the FOIA, as amended, or the Privacy Act of 1974, in accordance with the provisions of those Acts.

(h) Redaction standard. Agencies shall redact documents that are the subject of an access demand unless the overall meaning or informational value of the document is clearly distorted by redaction.

Subpart F—Reporting

§ 2001.60 Statistical reporting [5.3].

Each agency that creates or handles classified information shall report annually to the Director of ISOO statistics related to its security classification program. The Director shall solicit recommendations from the member agencies of the Security Policy Forum regarding the reporting requirements. The Director will instruct agencies what data elements are required, and how and when they are to be reported.

§ 2001.61 Accounting for costs [5.6(c)(8)].

(a) Information on the costs associated with the implementation of the Order will be collected from the agencies by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB). OMB will provide data to ISOO on the cost estimates for classification-related activities. ISOO will include these cost estimates in its annual report to the President. The agency senior official should work closely with the agency comptroller to ensure that the best estimates are collected.

(b) The Secretary of Defense, acting as the executive agent for the National Industrial Security Program under Executive Order 12829, and consistent with agreements entered into under section 202 of E.O. 12829, will collect cost estimates for classification-related activities of contractors, licensees, certificate holders, and grantees, and report them to ISOO annually. ISOO will include these cost estimates in its annual report to the President.
